

PENNSYLVANIA PRIMARY TO BE HELD TO-MORROW

Contest Centres on Fight between Penrose and Brumbaugh for G. O. P. Delegates.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—The bitter Republican factional fight in this State will end when the voters go to the polls at the primary election on Tuesday. The struggle for the control of the seventy-six delegates to the Republican National Convention between Senator Penrose and Gov. Brumbaugh will end.

Penrose has announced that he favors an unpledged delegation, although his followers, it is reported, are working quietly but earnestly for the nomination of Philander C. Knox, formerly United States Senator and Secretary of State.
Brumbaugh has announced his own candidate for the Presidential nomination, but has stated he will willingly give place to any candidate—from another State—who will unite the Republican and Bull Moose Parties. Mr. Knox, as the possible candidate again for the United States Senate, is endorsed by both factions.
President Wilson's name stands alone as the Presidential nominee on the Democratic ballot.

BOGUS "SON" IS HELD FOR ANNOYING LAWYER
OAKLEY RHINELANDER

Farrell's Claims to Kinship and Letters to Millionaire May Call for Sanity Action.

Silk-hatted and faultlessly dressed, Ignatius Augustus Farrell, who says his real name is T. J. Oakley Rhinelander Jr., appeared in Jefferson Market Court today for sentence on a plea of guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct.

According to Mr. Rhinelander, lawyer and manager of the $4,000,000 estate of his father, William Rhinelander, Farrell has annoyed him for months by claiming to be his son.
He first told the butler he had come to stay at the Rhineland-er house, No. 24 West Fifty-second Street. He has since written Mr. Rhinelander many letters, some addressed "His Majesty the King of Immortality," and signed "The King of Africa."

Farrell called yesterday to see Mr.
Rhineland-er, and followed him along the street to Sixth Avenue and Fifty-fourth Street, where the exasperated attorney turned him over to a policeman.
"I don't know this man," said Mr.
Rhineland-er, "and cannot account for the claim he makes."
Farrell was arraigned in the Men's Night Court, and pleaded guilty. The Night Court, he said, was not the proper tribunal for his case. He promised to make a full statement today. The name Farrell, he said, he had taken only for literary purposes.
Farrell has been living for ten days at the Hotel Continental. Nothing more about him is known there, except that he is said to have appeared to be well supplied with funds. Allenists may be called to pass upon his sanity.

ATE KEYS AND HELD
KEEPER PRISONER

Being an Ostrich She Only Followed Nature, but It Was Hard on Manley.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—Locked in a cage with an ostrich which had swallowed his keys, Keeper Manley, of the Zoological Gardens, spent an exciting two hours last night.

According to Manley, Gertrude, the ostrich, has not been well, and he entered the cage to attend to her.
He dropped the keys by accident and Gertrude gulped them down. It was after closing hour and the building was deserted.

The bird, which is vicious, attacked him, but he managed to keep her off with a spiked pole. Finally he attracted the attention of another keeper, who went to his rescue. Gertrude apparently suffered no ill effects from her diet.

WINDMILL IN FUR.

At a fashion show in connection with the convention of the women's club Federation the ladies are to be shown how to distinguish rabbit fur from sealskin.

MRS. ADAMS TO FIGHT ON.

Denies Abandoning Claims on Trust Estate.

BOISE, Idaho, May 15.—Mrs. George Washington Adams of Boise denied today that she had abandoned efforts to recover alleged dower rights to New York City real estate, valued at millions, and once owned by the late Edward Tracy, wealthy brewer, whose legal wife Mrs. Adams claims to have been.

Discussing action of her attorneys in New York last week in entry of her suits to recover property now in the possession of Andrew Carnegie, Mrs. Henry C.
Phillips and others, Mrs. Adams said the suits merely were discontinued for the present, as she was not ready for trial, and wanted to avoid judgment by default.

COLUMBIACRY OF FIGHT! STARTS
PANIC IN A THEATRE

When two women in the Lucky Star Theatre, a moving picture house at Fifth Street and First Avenue, got into an argument over the possession of a seat last night some careless person in the audience yelled "Fight!" Many in the audience mistook the cry for "Fire!" and scores rushed for the exits. The manager of the house, Joseph Kaufman, restored order but not before most of his patrons had fled.
One on reaching the street ran a fire alarm and in a few minutes fire apparatus clattered up to the door.

SHAVING SAVING.
The whiskers of Robert Newlin of Ohio are estimated to have saved him $1,000 in the thirty-three years he hasn't had 'em shaved off.

Motion Picture Notes.

Thomas Dixon has gone to Washington to show his new feature film, "The Fall of a Nation," to the presidential leaders of Congress.

Devote Palmer, Mrs. Cecil Raleigh, Armand Cortez, Anna Reeder and Ruby Hoffman appear with Jose Collins in her new Fox picture.

Howard Davies, of Pallas Pictures, says he detests poetry, whether it be good or bad. Somebody's been feeding that actor meat.

Elaine Stern, well known as a scenario author, is writing the book and lyrics of a comic opera, and they say it promises to be a hit.

Claude Cooper and Frank McNish are being featured in a new series of Thanhouser-Mutual comedies. The first is called "Detectives."

The Essanay-Chaplin comedy, "Police!" has been secured by S. L. Rothapel for the Kialto. Marcus Loew has also booked it and will show it in all his New York theatres.

Lois Meredith's new Knickerbocker picture, "Spellbound," will be seen in local theatres this week. It is a five-reel drama of modern society.

Laurel Lhajul, the little French star of the Huntington Film Company, is to write some scenarios in collaboration with Mrs. Pearl Dolis Bell. Mile. Lhajul will star in the pictures herself.

The Signal-Mutual interests have purchased the film rights to Vaughn Kester's story, "The Manager of the B. & A.," and it will be filmed with Helen Holmes and J. P. McGowan in the chief roles.

Jessie Burdett has been engaged by the Horsley Company for a part in "The Wasted Years," in which Crane Wilbur is featured. She is a native of France and first acted for the film camera there.

Hazel Dawn is to see herself in films at the Strand to-night, where her latest photo play, "The Proud Girl," is being shown. As a compliment to her Carl Edwards will have his orchestra play selections from "The Pink Lady."

Kid Broad, hero of many a hard-fought ring battle, has become a film actor. He appears in a number of scenes in "The Eternal Saphire," in which William Fox is starring Theda Bara. The Kid intends to win the title of screen matinee idol through his acting alone and not on his physical beauty.

To Honor Year's Dead Police.
Members of the Police Department will pay tribute this afternoon to the men who died in the last year. Police Commissioner Woods has arranged to hold the annual exercises in the Metropolitan Opera House at 4 o'clock. The Police Glue Club and the audience will sing the "Star Spangled Banner." Mayor Mitchell and Commissioner Woods will speak.

Safety Signals

You who travel frequently over our line—did you ever stop to consider what this system of safety signals means to you?

This Railroad has $16,000,000 Invested in Safety Signals on its Lines East of Pittsburgh. In 1915, $1,800,000 was appropriated for signal maintenance.

4,364,519 tests and observations show that our Trainmen are 99.9% perfect in obeying these signals and train rules.

The signals which automatically protect our tracks and trains both day and night and in all kinds of weather constitute only one of the protective measures adopted by this Company to safeguard its patrons.
